This annual report of the Ethnicity, Nationalism, and Migration Section (ENMISA) captures the activities for the period 2019-2020.

Annual Conference Program Contributions

The ENMISA section of the 2020 annual conference program was organized by program chairs Johanna Birnir (University of Maryland, College Park) and Dawn Brancati (Yale University). Compared to the previous year, section saw a 33% increase in first-preference submissions, totaling 312. As in previous years, ENMISA successfully stretched its original quota of 37 panels with numerous co-sponsorships to a total of 52 panels.

ENMISA Leadership and Membership Development

Following the election of officers in January 2019, ENMISA Leadership is comprised of the following officers:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Chair</th>
<th>Daniel Naujoks</th>
<th>Secretary</th>
<th>Natasha T. Duncan</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Chair-elect</td>
<td>Bahar Baser</td>
<td>Communications officer</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vice-Chair &amp; Program Co-Chair</td>
<td>Jonghanna Kristin Birnir</td>
<td>Member-at-large</td>
<td>Delidji Eric Degila</td>

<td>Dawn Brancati</td>
<td></td>
<td>Nergis Canefe</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Treasurer</td>
<td>Gerasimos Tsourapas</td>

<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Against the trend of the previous years, in the last year, ENMISA membership has decrease by 36 members to currently 438 (Figure 1). While there are no reliable sources of information on the underlying reason for this development, anecdotal evidence suggests that the fact that annual conference 2020 is being held in Hawai`i, involving considerably higher travel cost and time needed to attend the conference were factors contributing to this development.
ENMISA Awards
ENMISA recognizes scholarly work through four awards, namely recognizing (1) a distinguished scholar; (2) a distinguished book; (3) an outstanding paper presented at the previous ISA; (4) a graduate student paper presented at the previous ISA.

ENMISA Distinguished Scholar Award
The 2020 Distinguished Scholar Award recognizing a distinguished record in publishing and service to ISA in the field of ethnicity, nationalism or migration studies goes to

RECEPTION AT THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE
For several years, ENMISA has co-sponsored a reception at the Annual Conference. For the 2020 reception in Honolulu, we co-sponsor the reception with International Law (ILAW), Human Rights (HR) and International Organization (IO) sections. ENMISA has raised currently $1,450 (there are some other contributions that have been promised but not yet received yet) from the following sources. In addition, publishers, such as Lynne Rienner Publishers, have contributed to the join reception.

ENMISA Budget

As Figure 2 shows, the budget for the section is showing dynamism and positive growth in recent years. It has grown continuously from $6,548 in the beginning of 2013 to our current balance of $20.174 in December 2019,

Note: Balance as of January 1, except for 2020 showing data for Dec 19, 2019.

In general, ENMISA spends money on the same things every year—co-sponsorship of the reception, a graduate student paper award, outstanding paper award, plaques for the book and distinguished scholar awards. Our expenses for FY2019 amounted to $5,298 down from $6,915 (FY2018), which reflect our more cautious approach to spending over the past year: we spent only $4,620 on the 2019 reception and $678 on the ENMISA awards. At the same time, the Section’s active fundraising provided $2,050 via sponsorship, while membership dues provided $2,089 - thus, total revenue amounted to $4,139.

For FY2019, we covered the $1,158 balance for FY2019 from the ENMISA budget reserves. While such fluctuations are not uncommon, this demonstrates the need to attract more sponsors and to ensure that we avoid drawing on our budgetary resources to support our activities. Indicatively, we were able to collect $8,349 in sponsorship funding in FY2018 (compared with $2,050 in FY2019). While the ENMISA budget remains healthy, there is a strong need to be more proactive in attracting sponsorship funding in order to maintain a balanced budget on an annual basis and ensure the Section’s long-term financial stability.

Elections

After the election of the executive board in January 2019, ENMISA will be conducting its next round of full elections only before the annual conference in 2021. In 2020, the section will only elect the 2021 program chairs.

Social Media

ENMISA has a regularly updated webpage under ISA and also has an active Facebook group with 1,125 members (Dec 15, 2019) – more than a fourfold increase since the previous year.
In the fall of 2019, the section established a Twitter account with the handle @_ENMISA. Even before the beginning of the actual activity, the account has over 70 followers, though the section hopes to reach 1,000 followers within the first year. The account will be an important platform to publicize section announcements and member news. The ENMISA Executive Committee adopted a Social Media strategy that serves as a guideline for the roll-out and maintenance of the section’s social media accounts and to establish coherence between the users of the account.
