

overview of how things went for your workshop . "The report must contain

- 1) a detailed accounting of budget expenses,

The Workshop was held for free at Georgia State University from 8:30AM-3PM and then met again at the Hilton conference hotel, also for free, arranged by Ms. Jeanie White.

Travel and hotel expenses for Richard Falk:	$2386.00
Travel and hotel expenses for Farid Mirbagheri	$2286.81
Lunch sandwiches (paid by Henry Carey)	$ 205.20
Sodas for Lunch (paid by Henry Carey)	$ 19.31
Breakfast (paid by Henry Carey)	$ 205.00
Coffees and Pastries for two breaks (paid by Henry Carey)	$87.00

Per Diems for those named in the attachment. We would like to pay $100 per person for 57 persons, for a total of $5,700.

2) The workshop went very well according to the planned agenda (see below). Eight papers were commissioned and delivered. Two discussants made comments at each of the four main panels. A luncheon lecture was delivered, and a final plenary session was held in the evening at the Hilton. Audio recordings for the entire event were made and can be downloaded from the dropbox (a link was emailed to Mr. Tiky).

Bridging the Conceptual and Theoretical Divides on Peace and Peacebuilding

17 March 2016

8:30AM-3:45PM: Georgia State University, Troy Moore Library, 25 Park Place, Room 2343

[ten minutes walk from Conference hotels: Go downhill/south on Peachtree Street. Tall building on left, below/east of the middle of Woodruff Park]

6-7:30PM, Hilton Hotel, Room 402

Agenda

NB: Unlike typical ISA panels, this workshop is meant for active discussion. The goal, therefore is that half (37 minutes) of each panel is meant for Paper presentations (no more than 12 minutes each) and Discussants (no more than five minutes each) and half for audience commentary. We request that comments be respectful and collegial, in the spirit of peacemaking. To encourage a “positive peace” among us, regardless of whatever you think of the concept in politics, please try to attend one or both of the following events:

Wednesday, March 16, 8-10PM, Gordon Vernick Jazz QUARTET at Red Light Café in Midtown, off of Amsterdam and Monroe Ave (no cover charge!) <http://redlightcafe.com/> A taxi or Uber/Lyft car will get you there for about $8, or $2.00 per person each way if you travel with a total of four people. (Gordon is head of the Georgia State School of Fine Arts’ Jazz program and went to elementary and high school with Chip).

and on:

Friday March 18, from 9PM onward for Salsa, Bachata and Merengue at Fernbank Museum, two miles east of hotel of Ponce de Leon Avenue. (dinner and drinks can be purchased there). Hour-long Lesson at 8:15PM included in the $8 cover charge. A taxi or Uber/Lyft car will get you there for about $12, or $3.00 per person each way if you travel with a total of four people.

<http://www.fernbankmuseum.org/visit-fernbank/events-activities/>

https://images.search.yahoo.com/search/images; ylt=AwrBT8mPabJWLMMMA0_dXNyoA; ylu=X3oDMTEyNTg5NnYzBGNvbG8DYmYxBHBvcwMxBHZ0aWQDQjE1OTFfMQRzZWMDc2M-?p=Salsa+at+Fernbank+Museum&fr=mcafee

8:30 – 9:00 AM – Introduction and Welcome

- Susanne Schmeidl, University of New South Wales
- Chip Carey, Georgia State University

9:00 -10:15 AM – Session 1: Cosmopolitanism

Chair: Necla Tschirgi, Kroc School, University of San Diego

Papers:

- Richard Falk, University of California, Santa Barbara
- Úrsula Oswald Spring, (feminism) National Autonomous University of Mexico

Discussants:

- Oliver Richmond, University of Manchester
- David Chandler, Westminster University
- Kathie Barrett, West Georgia University

10:15-10:30 – Coffee Break

10:30-11:45 AM – Session 2: Liberalism

Chair: Charlotte Ku, School of Law, Texas A&M University

Papers:

- William Zartman (Preventive Diplomacy), John Hopkins University
- Alex Berg (Domestic Politics), Georgia State University

Discussants:

- Michael Lund, Management Systems International, Inc.
- Roger Mac Ginty, University of Manchester
- John Duffield, Georgia State University

12Noon – 1 pm – Lunch

Welcome, William Long, GSU Dean of Arts and Sciences

12:30PM, Guest Lecture: Professor Sarah F. Brosnan, “Peacebuilding among Primates”

1:00-2:15 PM – Session 3: Realism

Chair: Florian Kuhn, Interim Professor for Comparative Politics, Otto von Guericke University, Magdeburg, Germany.

Papers:

- Michael W. Fowler, United States Air Force Academy
- Norrin Ripsman, Concordia University

Discussants:

- Kevin Clements, University of Otago
- Robert A. Pape, University of Chicago
- Sabina Kurtenbach, German Institute of Global and Area Studies

2:15 PM Coffee Break

2:30-3:45PM Session 4: Critical Peacebuilding

Chair: Jennifer McCoy, Director of the Global Studies Institute and Distinguished University Professor, Georgia State University

Papers:

- Jacob Mundy, Colgate University
- Farid Mirbagheri, University of Nicosia (Muslim Views)

Discussants:

- Thania Paffenholz, Graduate Institute

- Jennifer Sterling-Folker, University of Connecticut
- Colin Cookman, US Institute of Peace

3:45-6:00 PM LONG BREAK to attend ISA afternoon panels from 4:00-5:45PM)

FINAL PLENARY PANEL:

6-7:15PM , Comparing and Contrasting Peacebuilding, HILTON HOTEL, ROOM 402

Chair: Carrie Manning, Chair, Dept. of Political Science, Georgia State University

Paper:

- Henry (Chip) Carey and Onur Sen, Georgia State University

Discussants:

- Susanne Schmeidl, University of New South Wales
- Will Moore, Arizona State University
- Tracy Lightcap, LaGrange College

III. Publication Plans

We will publish a book with a university press. I am currently in negotiations with Cambridge University Press.